Class History

Many pleasant memories are associated with ur thoughts as we reminisce over the past four ears spent together in our high school days.

Our freshman year, 1959, found a band of 61 ager and enthusistic freshmen entering the hal- wed halls of C-R. Though confident we were, it ok no time at all for the upperclassmen to show s we had much to learn. Our sponsors, Mrs. Zim- erman, Mrs. Reeder, and Mr. Jenkins, helped us o get a "footing on the climb" of high school life.

Chosen for our officers to pilot us through our rst year were Lynn Falk, President; Gary Craw- ord, Vice President; Sharon Spaeth, Secretary; nd Jim Smith, Treasurer. During the year we were nfortunate to lose Bill Brewster, Collene Detrick, lisa Amaya, and Carol Wright.

Losing the glitter and excitement of our fresh- an year, we plodded on as sophomores, falling in- o the ruts of high school life. Our sponsors, Mr. Iarshall and Mr. Jeong, exercised much patience s well as instilling in us a strong desire to carry ut our duties as members of the student body.

Our officers elected were as follows: Gary rawford, President; Pete Sullivan, Vice President; haron Spaeth, Secretary; and Jim Smith, Trea- rer. Gained during the year were Mike Brown, ennis Montgomery, Mike Betts, James Powell, nd Linda Lee. Lost were Floyd Eck, Judith Ben- min, Richard Williams, and Janet Grubbs.

As juniors, we found the responsibilities be- nning to mount, but the rewards of being upper- assmen compensated for the added work. One of ne main highlights of the year was the receiving f our class rings. Our dramatic ability was dis- layed by the presentation of our class play, "The oarding House Reach" under the supervision of Irs. Tippett. Due to the co-operation of all the iembers of the class and the director, it was one of our crowning achievements of the year.

Elected officers were John Spaeth, President; Mark Crates, Vice President; Karen Morrison, Secretary; Dennis Bame, Treasurer; and Sharon Spaeth, Reporter. Mr. Deeds and Mr. Cook, our sponsors, got many gray hairs helping us plan the annual Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the American Legion Hall in Findlay. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars."

Lost during the year were James Rizor, Bob Gardner, Linda Lee, James Powell, Mike Brown, and Lynnette Wilson.

At last - our senior year. But how fast it has approached us! Now we are the ones setting examples and helping the underclassmen to become sincere and faithful students of "good-ole" C-R. The responsibilities that have slowly mounted have come to a peak. Our sponsors, Mr. Clevidence and Mr. Berry, have the difficult task of guiding us through the last and supposedly best year of our lives.

The officers for this important year are John Spaeth, President; Gary Crawford, Vice President; Nancy Inbody, Secretary; Ann Steinman, Treasurer; and Susan Shindeldecker, Reporter.

Big events of the year were senior selection of class colors, motto, and flower, and the memorable Junior-Senior Prom-Banquet. The senior play, "It's a Girl", was presented in November and was directed by Mrs. Reeder.

We welcomed Marion Mac Fadden and Elaine Goings into our graduating class but were sorry to lose Mike Wooley and Phil Shulaw.

The activities of commencement week will be the crowning events of our high school career. We are looking forward to ending the year with the annual senior trip, which will be the last time we, the class of '63 will be together as a class.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

May 1973 finds the 1963 graduates making big names for themselves in the world.

We find the new Tarzan series going great with Dennis Montgomery as Tarzan and Judy Ackerman as his mate Jane. Boy is now being played by the leading actor of the year Dewayne Motter. Cheetah is now played by Roger Reiter, Jonella Harris has finally married her idol Stony Burke and Together they're still working to win the gold buckle for the rider of the year.

The Mrs. America Contest, showing annually on T. V. is now in Session. This year's contestants include some great names from Cory-Rawson. Here are a few: Carolyn Hanna, Roberta Pore, Freda Huffman, and Dorothy Von Stein. All by the way are married to millionaires.

The I'm Dickens, He's Fenster Show is now seen as the "I's Phil, He's Blacky" whose stars of course are Phil Wilson and James Blackburn.

Doneta Elsea has kept the home front in the news as she has just been chosen "Mother of the Year." Her ambition is to raise her own football team and to schedule a game with Ohio State University, the coach of which is now Keith Bowers.

In Rawson a club for confirmed bachelors has been formed. The president, Ron Thomas just couldn't get over his shyness toward girls, while V. President,Dale Redd prefers solitude to having the girls fighting over him. Other members of the club include Milton Ward, Jim Saltz, and Steve Reiter. Their motto is, "Girls, Girls, Girls are made for Love--But not for marriage".

Mark Crates has just been elected President of the United States his Vice President is Robert Kurt. Mark has chosen for his ambassador to Russia--the one and only Kenny Powell.

Lynn Falk and Duane Moore have teamed up and are now playing basketball with the "Garlam Tlobe Hotters." The last I heard they were giving old Wilt and Goose Tatum the beating of their lives.

Carol Collins and Shirley Elsea have sworn off men and are preparing to be the first women duet in outer space.

Marion McFadden has just taken over as the Jazz King for Louie Armstrong. Some of his more important members of his new combo are Gary Ruppright, David Wolber, and Ken Williams.

Trena Clymer has just taken over for Ellie May on the Beverly Hillbillies. Elaine Goings is still trying to get the part of granny. Arden Welch now plays the part of Jed Clampett.

Karen Morrison, Sharon Spaeth, and Ann Steinman are now on the chorus line at the Desert Inn of Las Vegas.

Gary Crawford and Dennis Bame have become professional race car drivers and are now entering in the Indianapolis 500. Their new nicknames are "Hot Rod Crawford" and "Lead Foot Bame."

Danny Dangler, Dewayne Kidd, and James Boehm are now singing commercials for Slits Beer. Their trio is called the "Tee Totalers."

Jim Smith, John Spaeth, and Pete Sullivan now run the Just As You Are Nudist Colony. It is located in the suburbs of Mt. Cory.

Nancy Inbody and Susan Shindeldecker now own Texas and are rolling in money.

Linda Falk has become a marriage counselor and her assistant is Carol Lhamon.

Linda Dukes has finally hit the big time by becoming the first woman pole vaulter to vault 30 feet.

Come back in another ten years and we will be happy to tell you of our fortunes, heartaches, and the many other interesting things that has happened to us, by that time Jean Ream will have graduated and we will tell you of her escapades.

Football Highlights

ARCADIA

Jim Searfoss started the scoring as he smashed over from the six to give us a never relinquished lead. Falk, who played end this game caught two passes from Crawford to end our scoring.

Arcadia added a score to their side but C-R had it wrapped up. Final score C-R 20 Arcadia 8.

VAN BUREN

Fullback Bob Parker scored tthe first TD on a plunge into the line. Falk, playing end again, received another Crawford pass to put us ahead 12 to 0. In the second quarter two passes from Gary Crawford to Lynn Falk, a combination which clicked several times all season, added two more scores to our total.

In the second half, VB added two scores of their own only to watch Crawford dash 31 yards for another touchdown. Parker closed the scoring with a two yard plunge in the fourth quarter. Final score C-R 42 VB 14.

VANLUE

Cory-Rawson got off to a fine start by scoring two touchdowns on passes to Dennis Bame. Bad luck struck Gary Crawford received a serious leg injury to put him out for the rest of the season.

Vanlue came back and scored five touchdowns to take the lead. We added another score to our total but fell short. Final score C-R 20 Vanlue 34.

LIBERTY BENTON

Early in the initial period, Ken Thomas scored for C-R, with Bill Johnson running the conversion. In the second quarter, L-B tallied to tie the score.

In the final quarter, quarterback Lynn Falk was tackled in the end zone for a two point safety. Their lead was short lived as Jim Searfoss threw a 40 yard pass to Falk to put us back in front. We held them on downs and took over on their nine yard line. After a penalty which put the ball on the three, Falk moved in for the score. Final score C-R 20 Liberty Benton 10.

LAFAYETTE

The Lafayette game was a defensive dual, which ended in a scoreless tie. We had the deeper penetration, but lost our chance on a fumble. Final score C-R 0 Lafayette 0.

COLUMBUS GROVE

The first game of the 1962 season found Columbus Grove at Cory-Rawson.

The Hornets jumped into the lead early in the first quarter, when Lynn Falk exploded for 78 yards and a touchdown. Gary Crawford kicked the conversion. The second score came on a Crawford pass to Dennis Bame, with Falk running the conversion.

In the second quarter, Jim Searfoss scored after a 38 yard march. Shortly afterwards, Crawford recovered a fumble on the kickoff and then plowed over from the six to put the icing on the scoring. Final score C-R 27 CG 0.

McCOMB

This year's Cory-Rawson team got revenge for last year's defeat on the two yard line.

The Hornets drew first blood when Falk dashed 45 yards up the middle for the touchdown. The Panthers had a drive halted on the nine, when Joe Bowers recovered a fumble on our 12. The first play then saw Crawford break loose on an 88 yard jaunt for the final score. Final score C-R 12 McComb 0.

BUCKEYE LOCAL

Adding a new opponent to the schedule did not seem to bother C-R. It was Lynn Falk who did most of the damaging as he had a field day in scoring five touchdowns. He had touchdown runs of 40, 7, and 53 yards. His other two came on pass receptions from Crawford of 45 and 23 yards. Crawford also tallied on a run in the second half. Other scores in the rout were a nine yard run by Searfoss, a 40 yard pass from Steve Beagle to Earl Bixel, and a stolen ball by defensive tackle Marion MacFadden, who romped 60 yards for the final score.

Buckeye Local scored on C-R in the third period, thus being the first to score on us this year. Final Score C-R 64 Buckeye Local 8.

ARLINGTON

The first defeat of the season came at the hands of Arlington. They scored first when a punt was blocked on the 12, and three plays later, they scored. C-R came bouncing back on a 90 yard march with Falk finally going over from the one.

Again Arlington capitalized on a C-R mistake as we fumbled on the 27. A determined defense finally could not hold them as they scored from the four. Our final score came on a Crawford-Falk pass. Final score C-R 12 Arlington 18.
